

SWANN SUBPENAS CORONER TIM HEALY

Joseph T. Newcomb Also Asked to Account for Fusion Expenditures.

BIDS FOR SOLDIER VOTE

Records Show the Disbursement of $10,537.55 at Camp by Ten Individuals.

Swann's appearance before Judge Healy yesterday morning was the first since his arrest.
He was asked to account for the money he had spent for the fusion campaign. He was asked to produce a list of the names of the men who received money from the fusion committee to be used for campaign work. He was asked to make an account of their expenditures. Edwin P. Healy, Assistant District Attorney, said he had a list of the names of the men who received money from the fusion committee. He said that the list was not complete, but that it was the best he could get. He
complete, but that it was
the best he could get.

Mr. Newcomb, it is understood, has stated emphatically that he made no personal gain of the $1,500 checked against him.
The money was distributed, he says, among independent organizations. Money was advanced to Cornelius J. Kilroe, to finance meetings. District Attorney Swann made public yesterday the list of expenditures of the fusion committee. The list shows that through ten individuals $10,537.55 was expended in an effort to gain the soldier vote. The list is as follows: Camp Wadsworth—Through Fred Waterbury, A. C.
Carmichael and O. P. Daniel, $2,452.18; Camp Upton, through Jacob Levin, $4,150; Plattburgh, through Harry Crois, $603.16; Camp Mills, through Frank Shaugnessy, $330; Camp Merritt, through John J. Hogan, $255.40; General camps, through Francis I. Butter and Mr. Leonard, $234.46; soldiers in France, through Warren C. V.
Spicer, $1,700.

ing a total of $14,513.33 expended.
Records in Mr. Swann's office show that the Manhattan headquarters of the fusion committee spent a total of $244,000.

ACCEPTS POST AS FLOUR DISTRIBUTER

George A. Zabriskie Will Determine Equitable Price.

George A. Zabriskie, agent for the Pillsbury Flour Mills Company and a member of the New York Produce Exchange, wired yesterday to Herbert C.
Hoover, National Food Administrator, that he would accept appointment as head flour distributor of the Food Administration.

"What is expected of me and what I shall try to do," Mr. Zabriskie said, "is to determine a fair and equitable price for flour from the miller to the consumer, with due consideration for the interests of both."
John Mitchell, president of the State Food Commission, announced yesterday the selection of Dr. Frederick E. Breth-er, assistant professor of chemistry and chief of the divisions of municipal chemistry and food chemistry of the College of the City of New York, as director of food conservation and information for New York city. Prof. Brethert will open a bureau in the Metropolitan Tower, 1 Madison avenue.

FOOD BOARD TO FIX PRICES OF TURKEY

Cold Storage Birds for Christmas Dinner May Retail at 35 to 37 Cents.

The Federal Food Board will call a meeting of poultry dealers probably on Thursday next to talk over prices that should be charged for cold storage turkeys for Christmas consumption. It is likely that an arrangement as to prices, similar to that which governed the sale of cold storage Thanksgiving turkeys, will be made then.

Under a ruling of the Federal Food Administration the balance of last year's cold storage turkeys now in the freezer must be released for the trade by midnight on December 31. One-half of last year's stocks had to come out for Thanksgiving.

P. Q. Foy, the market reporter, says that Greater New York will use about 2,000,000 pounds of the famous bird, fresh killed and otherwise. On December 1 there were 3,253,478 pounds of frozen turkeys in 217 warehouses in the United States, practically all there are where turkeys are stored. Comparatively little of this amount is to be found in New York now.
According to Mr. Foy these turkeys cost $1 to $2 cents a pound when they went into the freezer, and they stand their owners from 35 to 37 cents a pound now. He said they will be willing to sell at $1 to $2 cents a pound wholesale, which means that somebody will lose $1 on every hundredweight of frozen turkeys sold.
With ducks, geese, roasting chicken and capons popular at Christmas time as substitutes for turkeys, and with consumers rebelling against high priced frozen turkeys, he said, the owners will be willing to take a loss and consider they are getting off lucky. The present weather is helping the turkey men to curtail their expected losses.
The freight situation has hit the turkey shippers hard. Some shipments are now overdue.
Retail prices for fresh killed turkeys, he said, ought to be 35 cents for Western, 45 to 48 cents for fancy and 55 to 58 cents for Texas birds.
Cold storage turkeys, he said, ought to retail at from 35 to 37 cents.

MEANS VERDICT DELAYED.

Jury Goes to Bed After Deliberating Two Hours.

CONCORD, N. C., Dec. 15.—The jury trying Gaston B. Means for the murder of Mrs. Maude A. King did not return a verdict to-night. Sheriff Caldwell reported that the jury went to bed at 10 o'clock, after deliberating only two hours.
The case was given to the jury at 7 o'clock to-night. Argument of counsel, which began three days ago, was concluded at 5 P. M., and Superior Judge Cline immediately began his charge to the jury. Two hours was required to the court to review the evidence and instruct the jurors.
E. T. Canaler of Charlotte concluded his final argument for the defense this morning and was followed by L. C.
Caldwell of Statesville, who made the closing address for the State. Mr.
Canaler made a dramatic appeal to the jury. In the midst of his address Miss Belle Means, a sister of the defendant, broke down. She was removed from the court room by direction of Judge Cline.

10 Killed in Coal Mine Explosion.

BLUEFIELD, W. Va., Dec. 15.—Ten miners are known to have been killed to-night by an explosion in the mine of the Yukon-Poconet Coal Company at Susanna. Four others are reported dead.
Exploring parties are searching for other victims.

HYLAN TO FIGHT FOOD PROFITTEERS

Announces Plan for Mandatory Prices After Seeing Wagner.

WILL ABOLISH BOARDS

Backs Bill to Have Campaign Contributions Published 5 Days Before Election.

Immediate efforts to curb the food profiteers by mandatory food prices will be made after Judge Hyman takes office January 1. It was made known yesterday following a conference of the Mayor-elect and State Senator Robert F. Wagner, Democratic leader of the minority, at the headquarters of the Business Men's League, 30 East Forty-second street.

It was also suggested at the conference that a bill to amend the corrupt practices act so as to provide for the publication of all campaign contributions five days before election will be introduced by the Democrats at the next legislative session.

In addition to these proposals the Mayor-elect and Senator Wagner agreed that bills should be introduced abolishing the New York County Court House Board, the Parole Board and the Board of Water Supply. The personnel of the new Board of Education of seven members, which is to be appointed by Judge Hyman when he assumes office, was also discussed, as were various other educational matters.

Thinks Present Efforts Inadequate.

With reference to the fixing of prices of foodstuffs, to be embodied in the proposed legislative bill, Senator Wagner said:
"It has not been worked out fairly, but I think it is inevitable that some method will have to be devised of fixing prices so as to keep food and other articles of public need from soaring out of the reach of the poorer classes. The efforts made in that direction have not been sufficient to relieve the situation." Speaking of the bill to require the publication of campaign contributions before election, the Senator said:
"If such a law had been on the statute books we would not have witnessed any such fabulous expenditures of money as by the fusion ticket in the last campaign. The publication of all campaign contributions five days before the election would have a salutary effect." Mayor-elect Hyman made public yesterday a letter sent by him to William C. Willcox, president of the Board of Education, protesting against the creation of four additional district superintendents and three directors at a total annual salary of $52,500.

Asks Matter Be Put Over.

The letter reads as follows:
"It seems to me that even if the returning Board of Education, to repair the end of its term of office, had found it necessary to create these new positions it would have been better to have left the proposal in the form of a recommendation to the new Board of Education, which in all probability will find it advisable to effect a reorganization of the public school system after January 1."
"I call your attention particularly to the fact that one of the positions created is that of a director of organization of duplicate and intermediate schools at a salary of $14,500."
"You already know that the Board of Education has called a halt, as you have advised me, upon the extension of the Gary plan in any of the schools other than those for which contracts have been awarded."

"Surely this position is not necessary, and I ask you and the other members of the Board of Education not to fill any of these positions until the new Board of Education, which will come into office on January 1, has an opportunity of investigating the necessity for such positions."

Judge Hyman and Senator Wagner announced that they will go to Albany some time this week to confer with Gov.
William C. Crosey concerning the proposed bill. After the conference with the Governor Senator Wagner intends to make public the details of his legislative programme.

EXCLUSIVE JUDGES RAPED BY CROSEY

Should Not Cease to Be Human Beings, He Says.

ENHARTON, N. Y., Dec. 15.—Judges who are so exclusive that they will not ride in an elevator with members of the bar were raped by Supreme Court Justice James C. Crosey of Brooklyn at a dinner of the Broome County Bar Association in this city to-night. He spoke sarcastically of the private elevator for judges, which is being built in the remodelled Kings County Court House.
There is no reason why a lawyer elected to the bench should cease to be a human being, Justice Crosey said.
"This is not so much a loss to the bar as it is to the judges," he added. "The exclusiveness or segregation attempted by some of the bench tends to weaken and undermine the public's confidence and esteem for our judiciary and makes our judges less serviceable."
